

FOR SALE AT THE DESK.
Copies of the Daily Democrat can be procured at the desk, with or without envelopes, at 5 cents per single copy or 35 cents per dozen.

TURN OUT!

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—We have been requested to call a meeting of the Democratic party of this city, at the court-house, on THIS EVENING. The objects to appoint delegates to the Democratic Convention at Frankfort, on the EIGHTH OF JANUARY, and to prepare for the contest of next summer. We hope to see a full meeting and an old fashioned democratic demonstration. Don't forget the time, place, or object.

Our neighbor is for Fillmore as the next President. It is a very harmless employment in the eyes of the party, but it is a very dangerous one to the party, and it would be ungenerous to disturb them in it. But there are sympathies of a humbug habit in 1892. We are to have a no-party fraud again. Whigery will repudiate its peculiarities, and go for the Union in general without any policy in particular. The party men disposed to vote the compromise in the South. This is an old story, and as the whigs have no capital now, we don't know but we could spare them the use of the compromise, provided they will give bond and security that they will take good care of it. They evidently want to get hold of the compromise to nurse it to death.

They have taken nothing in hand that they have not ruined. They will make another compromise, and fritter away the old one if they have an opportunity. For this reason we can't risk the compromise in their hands without security. The Democratic party have capital plenty without the compromise, and can let the whigs have it if they will not destroy it.

We are the more inclined to do this, inasmuch as these measures called the compromise are only in danger from whigs. If the party adopt it, their capital, they will be the less able to resist it directly. They can only tamper with it under pretence of mending it. Let us have security against that sort of operation, and we shall let the whigs ride on the compromise in the next race. They may ride behind here in the South, at any rate—that is as much as they can claim any right to do.

The meeting in honor of General Joseph Lane, at Indianapolis, on the 15th, was very large, worthy of the occasion. No man stands higher with the people of his State than General Lane. They know and appreciate his merits. The General left yesterday for his former residence. We had the pleasure of a visit from him yesterday morning. He is in fine health and spirits, and will start next week for Washington.

ROBBERIES IN CINCINNATI.—Charles Blair was knocked down, on Vine street, on Tuesday night, and robbed of $470.

A German named Heckerl was knocked down, on Broadway street, on Wednesday night, and robbed of $13.

A passenger on the Lady Pike, soon after the boat arrived at the Cincinnati wharf, was robbed of a gold watch.

A man named McIntosh, from Cleveland, was knocked down, near the corner of Third and Scott streets, and robbed of a gold watch, $74 in money, and an eastern check for $500.

The paper establishment of J. L. Ross, corner of Court and Main streets, was entered on Monday night, the safe blown open, and $10 stolen.

Chapman's Varieties.
Chapman and his next little Vaudeville Theatre, conducted in the style of the renowned Olympic (Michelet's) of New York, is now in the full tide of success. The arrangements made for the comfort and ease of the audience, by raised and neatly cushioned seats, render it the most comfortable place of amusement in the city. The company is the most talented in this peculiar line of business that has played in this city for years. Chapman and his talented lady are already too well known to fame to be eulogized. Smith, Lawler, Brydon, and Taylor, with Mesdames Smith, Taylor, Selzman, and getting the charming danseuse, Mlle. Caroline, late of the Ravel Troupe, are faithful in their several roles. The character of the performance at this house is such as to amuse and prove instructive to all classes of the community. We have long wished to see established permanently in Louisville such a theatre, relieving, as this will, the monotony of a routine every season of old worn out tragedies, which have succeeded each other for long years. We hope Mr. Chapman will be sustained in his exertions to please our citizens, and realize his wish to locate permanently among us.

P. F. Moore, No. 52 Fourth Street.—This gentleman has recently established a new Auction and Commission store at the above stand. We looked in yesterday and found already a large stock of new and splendid furniture, and hundreds of other articles in his line of business. Mr. Moore is a man of business, and his store is in the best style, while the bar is supplied with unassorted liquors—we particularly recommend the delicious white wine. The lunch is set at 10 o'clock daily, and on Sundays an additional extra fare is laid before customers. Robert is always on hand to wait upon friends.

Kneels' Nightingale Open Groove.
The Nightingales were again greeted with a large and fashionable audience last night, and their performances elicited the liveliest satisfaction. The splendid fancy dances of Master Floyd were admirably executed. The burlesque dance of La Bayadere was rapturously executed, as was also the comic dancing of Harry Lehr. To-night they give their last farewell concert in Louisville, on which occasion the troupe offer their best bill of entertainment. To those who have not witnessed the performances of this far famed band, we say go to-night, by all means—you will not regret our advice.

A NOTORIOUS CHARACTER.—Mention was made, a few days since, in a city paper, of the arrest of a man named King, who had enticed away a slave belonging to Mr. Shotwell of this city. It has since been ascertained, however, that said King is no other than the notorious Joe Fairbanks, who, together with a Miss Webster, another notorious character, was sent to the Penitentiary in 1865, from Lexington, for stealing negroes. They were both pardoned by Gov. Crittenden. It is said that Fairbanks, since his release from prison, has been engaged pretty extensively in running negroes away from Kentucky and selling them. His trial takes place on next Monday.

THE CHICAGO JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

Mr. J. L. Lind commences a series of concerts in Boston, on the 22nd inst.

Madame Durand, an eminent vocalist, intends paying this city a visit shortly.

There were no cases before his Honor, Judge Jones, yesterday morning.

The smallpox has made its appearance in the Cherokee nation. It seems to have created considerable fear.

The Syracuse, N. Y. Star, avers that the people in some portions of Onondaga county, were last week enjoying a good sleigh ride.

The Telegraph No. 2, Dunkirk, North River, and Lady Pike are still running as opposition boats in the Cincinnati line.

A consignment of new sugar and molasses, the first of the season, was received by Messrs. Spratt, Logan & Co. yesterday.

Twelve millions seven hundred and eighty-seven thousand five hundred and forty-seven pounds of butter are made annually in Indiana.

It is rumored that the City Bank of Columbus is about to go the way of the Columbus Insurance Company.

We are indebted to C. Hagan & Co., Fourth street, for a work entitled "The Young Lady who had finished her Education"—a spirited novel by T. S. Arthur.

The proprietors of the Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Line, contemplate running two lines: a morning and an evening line, as soon as the river rises a little more.

Father Matthew will publish copious notes of his tour in America immediately after his return home. His Secretary, C. R. Mahony, Esq., will edit the work.

Mr. Saunders, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, gave his sick mother a dose of medicine; it proved to be deadly poison, and she died in a few hours.

Many of the recruits at Jefferson barracks, near St. Louis, are reported as perfectly lawless. They have been recently engaged in stealing and killing the oxen of the officers.

The river was stationary last evening, with 3 feet 3 inches water in the canal. From our dispatches, it will be seen that there are now very favorable prospects of a rise.

Father Matthew, the apostle of temperance, has succeeded for Enn's Isle, amid the regrets and well-wishes of thousands. A hearty welcome awaits him on the shores of his native land.

The Bulletin says: "We are reliably informed that the indebtedness of one of our brokers, who failed a day or two since, is not more than $30 or $35,000, instead of $50,000, as was rumored."

The Madison Courier of Thursday says: "The Lady Pike, descending from Cincinnati, ran into the stern-wheel steamer Ohio, near Warsaw, last night. The Ohio was torn, it is supposed, in a sinking condition."

We are indebted to the officers of the Henderson packet Clara Fisher for river favors.

The French reporter the steamer Beacon around at Seaford, and the Pawa laid up at Clark Island, on her way to Henderson.

For telegraphic news, markets, &c., see next page.

Democratic Meeting.
Don't forget the democratic meeting to-night, at the court-house. Turn out, and do the work well. The Louisville democracy have heretofore acted a noble part; once more to victory!

The politicians of New York are still cowering up the result of the late election. The interesting point is who shall handle the nine millions!

On Monday, Osborne & Green, will sell a large variety of excellent furniture for cash. See advertisement.

A cabin passenger whose name was not known was drowned of the steamer, Clara Fisher, on her last trip to Henderson. The body was not recovered.

On the last trip of the Clara Fisher, to Henderson, a young man who had been a resident of this city, attempted suicide by jumping overboard. In this he failed, and was rescued by the crew. He was afterwards taken ashore, and is now recovering from his wounds. He was a native of this city, and was well known to many of our citizens.

Some whig genius is writing essays to the whig party of Tennessee, and publishing them in the Nashville Banner. He has got on to the tenth number; each communication filling about two columns. Now if the whigs do these productions, they deserve all that a patient industry in hard reading is entitled to.

Lunch.—Our neighbors, Satterthwaite & Pears, are determined not to be outdone by any other house. They have made the "Court Exchange" a popular place for the day, by furnishing to customers the best of the land can afford. Their restaurant is filled with luxuries done up in the best style, while the bar is supplied with unassorted liquors—we particularly recommend the delicious white wine. The lunch is set at 10 o'clock daily, and on Sundays an additional extra fare is laid before customers. Robert is always on hand to wait upon friends.

Kneels' Nightingale Open Groove.
The Nightingales were again greeted with a large and fashionable audience last night, and their performances elicited the liveliest satisfaction. The splendid fancy dances of Master Floyd were admirably executed. The burlesque dance of La Bayadere was rapturously executed, as was also the comic dancing of Harry Lehr. To-night they give their last farewell concert in Louisville, on which occasion the troupe offer their best bill of entertainment. To those who have not witnessed the performances of this far famed band, we say go to-night, by all means—you will not regret our advice.

A NOTORIOUS CHARACTER.—Mention was made, a few days since, in a city paper, of the arrest of a man named King, who had enticed away a slave belonging to Mr. Shotwell of this city. It has since been ascertained, however, that said King is no other than the notorious Joe Fairbanks, who, together with a Miss Webster, another notorious character, was sent to the Penitentiary in 1865, from Lexington, for stealing negroes. They were both pardoned by Gov. Crittenden. It is said that Fairbanks, since his release from prison, has been engaged pretty extensively in running negroes away from Kentucky and selling them. His trial takes place on next Monday.

THE CHICAGO JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

From the N. Y. Evening Post.

A significant circumstance in the late election in this State. If we may believe certain organs of the whig party, the government officers stood upon the purity of their political virtue; they could not, conscientiously, give money to the enemies of the election.

There were no cases before his Honor, Judge Jones, yesterday morning.

The smallpox has made its appearance in the Cherokee nation. It seems to have created considerable fear.

The Telegraph No. 2, Dunkirk, North River, and Lady Pike are still running as opposition boats in the Cincinnati line.

A consignment of new sugar and molasses, the first of the season, was received by Messrs. Spratt, Logan & Co. yesterday.

Twelve millions seven hundred and eighty-seven thousand five hundred and forty-seven pounds of butter are made annually in Indiana.

It is rumored that the City Bank of Columbus is about to go the way of the Columbus Insurance Company.

We are indebted to C. Hagan & Co., Fourth street, for a work entitled "The Young Lady who had finished her Education"—a spirited novel by T. S. Arthur.

The proprietors of the Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Line, contemplate running two lines: a morning and an evening line, as soon as the river rises a little more.

Father Matthew will publish copious notes of his tour in America immediately after his return home. His Secretary, C. R. Mahony, Esq., will edit the work.

Mr. Saunders, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, gave his sick mother a dose of medicine; it proved to be deadly poison, and she died in a few hours.

Many of the recruits at Jefferson barracks, near St. Louis, are reported as perfectly lawless. They have been recently engaged in stealing and killing the oxen of the officers.

The river was stationary last evening, with 3 feet 3 inches water in the canal. From our dispatches, it will be seen that there are now very favorable prospects of a rise.

Father Matthew, the apostle of temperance, has succeeded for Enn's Isle, amid the regrets and well-wishes of thousands. A hearty welcome awaits him on the shores of his native land.

The Bulletin says: "We are reliably informed that the indebtedness of one of our brokers, who failed a day or two since, is not more than $30 or $35,000, instead of $50,000, as was rumored."

The Madison Courier of Thursday says: "The Lady Pike, descending from Cincinnati, ran into the stern-wheel steamer Ohio, near Warsaw, last night. The Ohio was torn, it is supposed, in a sinking condition."

We are indebted to the officers of the Henderson packet Clara Fisher for river favors.

The French reporter the steamer Beacon around at Seaford, and the Pawa laid up at Clark Island, on her way to Henderson.

For telegraphic news, markets, &c., see next page.

Democratic Meeting.
Don't forget the democratic meeting to-night, at the court-house. Turn out, and do the work well. The Louisville democracy have heretofore acted a noble part; once more to victory!

The politicians of New York are still cowering up the result of the late election. The interesting point is who shall handle the nine millions!

On Monday, Osborne & Green, will sell a large variety of excellent furniture for cash. See advertisement.

A cabin passenger whose name was not known was drowned of the steamer, Clara Fisher, on her last trip to Henderson. The body was not recovered.

On the last trip of the Clara Fisher, to Henderson, a young man who had been a resident of this city, attempted suicide by jumping overboard. In this he failed, and was rescued by the crew. He was afterwards taken ashore, and is now recovering from his wounds. He was a native of this city, and was well known to many of our citizens.

Some whig genius is writing essays to the whig party of Tennessee, and publishing them in the Nashville Banner. He has got on to the tenth number; each communication filling about two columns. Now if the whigs do these productions, they deserve all that a patient industry in hard reading is entitled to.

Lunch.—Our neighbors, Satterthwaite & Pears, are determined not to be outdone by any other house. They have made the "Court Exchange" a popular place for the day, by furnishing to customers the best of the land can afford. Their restaurant is filled with luxuries done up in the best style, while the bar is supplied with unassorted liquors—we particularly recommend the delicious white wine. The lunch is set at 10 o'clock daily, and on Sundays an additional extra fare is laid before customers. Robert is always on hand to wait upon friends.

Kneels' Nightingale Open Groove.
The Nightingales were again greeted with a large and fashionable audience last night, and their performances elicited the liveliest satisfaction. The splendid fancy dances of Master Floyd were admirably executed. The burlesque dance of La Bayadere was rapturously executed, as was also the comic dancing of Harry Lehr. To-night they give their last farewell concert in Louisville, on which occasion the troupe offer their best bill of entertainment. To those who have not witnessed the performances of this far famed band, we say go to-night, by all means—you will not regret our advice.

A NOTORIOUS CHARACTER.—Mention was made, a few days since, in a city paper, of the arrest of a man named King, who had enticed away a slave belonging to Mr. Shotwell of this city. It has since been ascertained, however, that said King is no other than the notorious Joe Fairbanks, who, together with a Miss Webster, another notorious character, was sent to the Penitentiary in 1865, from Lexington, for stealing negroes. They were both pardoned by Gov. Crittenden. It is said that Fairbanks, since his release from prison, has been engaged pretty extensively in running negroes away from Kentucky and selling them. His trial takes place on next Monday.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

From the N. Y. Evening Post.

A significant circumstance in the late election in this State. If we may believe certain organs of the whig party, the government officers stood upon the purity of their political virtue; they could not, conscientiously, give money to the enemies of the election.

There were no cases before his Honor, Judge Jones, yesterday morning.

The smallpox has made its appearance in the Cherokee nation. It seems to have created considerable fear.

The Telegraph No. 2, Dunkirk, North River, and Lady Pike are still running as opposition boats in the Cincinnati line.

A consignment of new sugar and molasses, the first of the season, was received by Messrs. Spratt, Logan & Co. yesterday.

Twelve millions seven hundred and eighty-seven thousand five hundred and forty-seven pounds of butter are made annually in Indiana.

It is rumored that the City Bank of Columbus is about to go the way of the Columbus Insurance Company.

We are indebted to C. Hagan & Co., Fourth street, for a work entitled "The Young Lady who had finished her Education"—a spirited novel by T. S. Arthur.

The proprietors of the Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Line, contemplate running two lines: a morning and an evening line, as soon as the river rises a little more.

Father Matthew will publish copious notes of his tour in America immediately after his return home. His Secretary, C. R. Mahony, Esq., will edit the work.

Mr. Saunders, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, gave his sick mother a dose of medicine; it proved to be deadly poison, and she died in a few hours.

Many of the recruits at Jefferson barracks, near St. Louis, are reported as perfectly lawless. They have been recently engaged in stealing and killing the oxen of the officers.

The river was stationary last evening, with 3 feet 3 inches water in the canal. From our dispatches, it will be seen that there are now very favorable prospects of a rise.

Father Matthew, the apostle of temperance, has succeeded for Enn's Isle, amid the regrets and well-wishes of thousands. A hearty welcome awaits him on the shores of his native land.

The Bulletin says: "We are reliably informed that the indebtedness of one of our brokers, who failed a day or two since, is not more than $30 or $35,000, instead of $50,000, as was rumored."

The Madison Courier of Thursday says: "The Lady Pike, descending from Cincinnati, ran into the stern-wheel steamer Ohio, near Warsaw, last night. The Ohio was torn, it is supposed, in a sinking condition."

We are indebted to the officers of the Henderson packet Clara Fisher for river favors.

The French reporter the steamer Beacon around at Seaford, and the Pawa laid up at Clark Island, on her way to Henderson.

For telegraphic news, markets, &c., see next page.

Democratic Meeting.
Don't forget the democratic meeting to-night, at the court-house. Turn out, and do the work well. The Louisville democracy have heretofore acted a noble part; once more to victory!

The politicians of New York are still cowering up the result of the late election. The interesting point is who shall handle the nine millions!

On Monday, Osborne & Green, will sell a large variety of excellent furniture for cash. See advertisement.

A cabin passenger whose name was not known was drowned of the steamer, Clara Fisher, on her last trip to Henderson. The body was not recovered.

On the last trip of the Clara Fisher, to Henderson, a young man who had been a resident of this city, attempted suicide by jumping overboard. In this he failed, and was rescued by the crew. He was afterwards taken ashore, and is now recovering from his wounds. He was a native of this city, and was well known to many of our citizens.

Some whig genius is writing essays to the whig party of Tennessee, and publishing them in the Nashville Banner. He has got on to the tenth number; each communication filling about two columns. Now if the whigs do these productions, they deserve all that a patient industry in hard reading is entitled to.

Lunch.—Our neighbors, Satterthwaite & Pears, are determined not to be outdone by any other house. They have made the "Court Exchange" a popular place for the day, by furnishing to customers the best of the land can afford. Their restaurant is filled with luxuries done up in the best style, while the bar is supplied with unassorted liquors—we particularly recommend the delicious white wine. The lunch is set at 10 o'clock daily, and on Sundays an additional extra fare is laid before customers. Robert is always on hand to wait upon friends.

Kneels' Nightingale Open Groove.
The Nightingales were again greeted with a large and fashionable audience last night, and their performances elicited the liveliest satisfaction. The splendid fancy dances of Master Floyd were admirably executed. The burlesque dance of La Bayadere was rapturously executed, as was also the comic dancing of Harry Lehr. To-night they give their last farewell concert in Louisville, on which occasion the troupe offer their best bill of entertainment. To those who have not witnessed the performances of this far famed band, we say go to-night, by all means—you will not regret our advice.

A NOTORIOUS CHARACTER.—Mention was made, a few days since, in a city paper, of the arrest of a man named King, who had enticed away a slave belonging to Mr. Shotwell of this city. It has since been ascertained, however, that said King is no other than the notorious Joe Fairbanks, who, together with a Miss Webster, another notorious character, was sent to the Penitentiary in 1865, from Lexington, for stealing negroes. They were both pardoned by Gov. Crittenden. It is said that Fairbanks, since his release from prison, has been engaged pretty extensively in running negroes away from Kentucky and selling them. His trial takes place on next Monday.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

THE OREGON JOURNAL says that a beautiful deer, perfectly white, has been brought to this city. It was captured at the mouth of St. Joseph's river, and had been wounded by a shot from some unlucky rifle.

From the N. Y. Evening Post.

A significant circumstance in the late election in this State. If we may believe certain organs of the whig party, the government officers stood upon the purity of their political virtue; they could not, conscientiously, give money to the enemies of the election.

There were no cases before his Honor, Judge Jones, yesterday morning.

The smallpox has made its appearance in the Cherokee nation. It seems to have created considerable fear.

The Telegraph No. 2, Dunkirk, North River, and Lady Pike are still running as opposition boats in the Cincinnati line.

A consignment of new sugar and molasses, the first of the season, was received by Messrs. Spratt, Logan & Co. yesterday.

Twelve millions seven hundred and eighty-seven thousand five hundred and forty-seven pounds of butter are made annually in Indiana.

It is rumored that the City Bank of Columbus is about to go the way of the Columbus Insurance Company.

We are indebted to C. Hagan & Co., Fourth street, for a work entitled "The Young Lady who had finished her Education"—a spirited novel by T. S. Arthur.

The proprietors of the Louisville and Cincinnati Mail Line, contemplate running two lines: a morning and an evening line, as soon as the river rises a little more.

Father Matthew will publish copious notes of his tour in America immediately after his return home. His Secretary, C. R. Mahony, Esq., will edit the work.

Mr. Saunders, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, gave his sick mother a dose of medicine; it proved to be deadly poison, and she died in a few hours.

Many of the recruits at Jefferson barracks, near St. Louis, are reported as perfectly lawless. They have been recently engaged in stealing and killing the oxen of the officers.

The river was stationary last evening, with 3 feet 3 inches water in the canal. From our dispatches, it will be seen that there are now very favorable prospects of a rise.

Father Matthew, the apostle of temperance, has succeeded for Enn's Isle, amid the regrets and well-wishes of thousands. A hearty welcome awaits him on the shores of his native land.

The Bulletin says: "We are reliably informed that the indebtedness of one of our brokers, who failed a day or two since, is not more than $30 or $35,000, instead of $50,000, as was rumored."

The Madison Courier of Thursday says: "The Lady Pike, descending from Cincinnati, ran into the stern-wheel steamer Ohio, near Warsaw, last night. The Ohio was torn, it is supposed, in a sinking condition."

We are indebted to the officers of the Henderson packet Clara Fisher for river favors.

The French reporter the steamer Beacon around at Seaford, and the Pawa laid up at Clark Island, on her way to Henderson.

For telegraphic news, markets, &c., see next page.

Democratic Meeting.
Don't forget the democratic meeting to-night, at the court-house. Turn out, and do the work well. The Louisville democracy have heretofore acted a noble part; once more to victory!

The politicians of New York are still cowering up the result of the late election. The interesting point is who shall handle the nine millions!

On Monday, Osborne & Green, will sell a large variety of excellent furniture for cash. See advertisement.

A cabin passenger whose name was not known was drowned of the steamer, Clara Fisher, on her last trip to Henderson. The body was not recovered.

On the last trip of the Clara Fisher, to Henderson, a young man who had been a resident of this city, attempted suicide by jumping overboard. In this he failed, and was rescued by the crew. He was afterwards taken ashore, and is now recovering from his wounds. He was a native of this city, and was well known to many of our citizens.

Some whig genius is writing essays to the whig party of Tennessee, and publishing them in the Nashville Banner. He has got on to the tenth number; each communication filling about two columns. Now if the whigs do these productions, they deserve all that a patient industry in hard reading is entitled to.

Lunch.—Our neighbors, Satterthwaite & Pears, are determined not to be outdone by any other house. They have made the "Court Exchange" a popular place for the day, by furnishing to customers the best of the land can afford. Their restaurant is filled with luxuries done up in the best style, while the bar is supplied with unassorted liquors—we particularly recommend the delicious white wine. The lunch is set at 10 o'clock daily, and on Sundays an additional extra fare is laid before customers. Robert is always on hand to wait upon friends.

FRESH GOODS.
BROWN, CURTIS & VANCE,
No. 447, corner of Market and Fourth streets,
LOUISVILLE, KY.
H AVE now on hand their full supplies of fall and winter goods, which they trust will be of great benefit to our friends and customers at the very lowest market prices consisting in part of:
Bugs embroidered Dress Silks;
Do plaid silks; Dress plaid and rept silks;
Do black Grosgrain; Dress; and
Do 6 black Grosgrain de Atric;
Rich printed de Leland and Cashmeres,
French and English Merinos;
Cloths and Cashmeres;
Shawls, of all seasons;
Blankets and plaid Linseys;
Hosiery and Gloves. We are selling all these goods, etc., at the lowest prices, and we are confident that we are what they call the attention of the public generally.
oct9

NEW BONNETS.
THE undersigned has just received a new lot of colored Gimp and Lace Bonnets, with a new and elegant style of Silk, ball and Veil Dress Bonnets, makes her stock complete, and is prepared to receive the public patronage.
Her customers and the public generally are respectfully invited to call.
oct9

E. D. NICOLAI,
N. B. Mrs. N. keeps always on hand a fine stock
Ribbons, Shawls, Feathers, and other fancy articles toilet use.

PRICE—9 pieces just received and for sale by noted
NEWLAND & TRABU

ISAAC CROMIE, Manufacturer of superior News Book Printing Paper, 477 Main street.
N. B. Cash paid for Rags, Hemp, and Cotton W<sup>as</sup> 10 distant

WM. YOUNG
H<sup>AVING</sup> removed from his former stand on Jefferson street to No. 88 Third street, west side, bet. Market and Jefferson, offers his services in physics and to the citizens of Louisville, as LEECHER, CUPPER, and BLEEDER.
MRS. YOUNG will wait upon ladies in the smallest business.
N. B. Physicians and others in the country can call on LEECHES, put up so as to carry them safely distance, by applying as above. my 1

I. J. LAWLESS,
Custom Boot and Shoe-Make
59 Wall street, one door below Main,
LOUISVILLE, KY.
I WOULD inform his friends and the public that he is prepared to make to order as fine BOOTS and SHOES, at as low prices as can be procured anywhere; and he flatters himself, from 10 years' experience, that he can make neat and comfortable a Boot as any workman in Louisville. From gentlemen with tender feet he would solicit a trial.
N. B. Two or three first-rate workmen wanted Boots and Shoes. oct10 d1r

LAND, from Jeddahsville and 14 miles from Utica, on the middle road leading to Marietta. There is excellent land, 40 acres cleared, and all under fence. There is a frame dwelling house containing rooms upon the premises, and log stable; an excellent and never failing spring of water is near the door. It is a desirable property for one wishing a farm of this size. Call on J. H. HENRIKSON, real estate dealer.

N. B.—Upon the above premises are 550 Peach Trees of the choicest fruit; 60 Apple Trees, young and bearing; also, one acre and a half of vineyard, Catawba grape. The fruit in a short time would pay the purchase money. 1798 d. w.

LAND Old, very pure and sweet, for sale by chaser, who can appreciate and enjoy a delicate and perfect touch, depth and purity of tone, combined with chaste and most substantial workmanship.
0687 THOS. A. HURLEY

They also have a large stock of Eastern and Foreign Sheet Music, and will be pleased in receiving New Music, as soon as published; Musical Instruments, Instruction Books of all kinds; Strings; Church Music and Musical Merchandise generally, which is offered at lowest prices at wholesale or retail. A share of patronage solicited.

G. W. BROWN AND CO
1199 G & W 117 Fourth Street, Mozart Building

JUST Received—A small lot French Mantel Clocks with shades, and for sale very low by ROBT & BROWN, 98 Fourth

THE JEFFERSONVILLE HOUSE is one of the very best and largest buildings for a Hotel in the State of Indiana. It is situated at a convenient distance from the city of Jeffersonville, on the Columbus Railroad, and the Jeffersonville and Newburg and Jeffersonville and Charlestown Plank roads and the Jeffersonville and Louisville Ferry. It is a spacious and well-constructed three story brick, and well-furnished on favorable terms to a good tenant. Apply to W. L. WOOD FLEMING, at the Galt House, Louisville, KY. or JOHN P. READ, Esq., at Jeffersonville. not d

WHITE LEAD, &c.—Consists of Co.'s Pure White Lead, Linseed Oil, and Turpentine for sale by JOSEPH THOMAS A. SURLYN